Chairman Bishop Announces Natural Resources Committee Republican Leadership, Subcommittee Assignments for 114th Congress

WASHINGTON, D.C., January 15, 2015 - House Natural Resources Chairman Rob Bishop (UT-01) today announced the subcommittee chairmen and rosters for the Committee's Republican members during the 114th Congress. Details for the Committee's formal organizational meeting will be announced in the near future.

"Promoting the responsible development of our domestic energy resources, active management of Federal lands, greater collaboration with our state, tribal and local partners, and examining federal regulatory overreach into these areas will be at forefront of the Natural Resources Committee agenda in the 114th Congress," stated Chairman Bishop. "Our subcommittees will guide these priorities, and today I'm proud to announce the Republican members who will lead these efforts over the next two years."
